

Official Notice on

The online service for reserving the juristic person's name

In order to apply for the juristic person's registration under Civil and Commercial Code or Public Limited Company Act B.E.2535, the juristic person's name must not be identical with the name of existing juristic person. To shorten the process of juristic person registration, Department of Business Development would like to offer an online service for juristic person's name check and juristic person's name reservation.

For the new online service, the applicant can check and reserve the juristic person's name by requesting a Username and Password via www.dbd.go.th. Then, click on "Apply for the juristic person's name". The applicant must have to provide the proposed name in both Thai and English. For English version, the name should have the same meaning or the same pronunciation as Thai version. The proposed name must not be also prohibited or must not violate the related laws. Moreover, the proposed name must not be identical with the existing juristic person or the name inserted in a registered memorandum or break the directive principles of state policies or contrary to public orders or good morals. All this, the applicant should refer to article 38 of The Rule of Office of the Company Limited and Partnership Registration dealing with the registration of partnership and company (No.3) B.E.2563 as the rule for the juristic person's name. In this regard, the registrar will consider the proposed name according to the reservation queue, which should take around 0.5 working days. After that, the applicant will receive the result via email.

Please kindly be informed accordingly

Department of Business Development

April 2020